

2019 ARTIST STUDIO CALLOUT CLOTHING STORE - CARRIAGEWORKS

The Clothing Store Artist Studio Program provides subsidised space to support artists to undertake ambitious projects, sustain their practice and work collaboratively with Carriageworks.

CLOTHING STORE ARTIST STUDIO PROGRAM

Carriageworks is providing 8 subsidised artist studios for a period of up to 12 months. In exchange for this support artists will collaborate with Carriageworks to participate in:

- 2 x Artist Workshops. Artists will lead 2 x workshops for up to 20 people across the year. Carriageworks will provide space for the workshops and will manage bookings and workshop support.
- 1 x Open Studio. During 2019 Carriageworks will coordinate 1 Open Studio Day where the community will have the opportunity to meet artists in their studio through an informal artist talks program.

Clothing Store Resident artists will also be invited to participate in a workshop led by New York based artist Asad Raza between February and May, 2019.

For the period of the Artist Studio Program, artists will be provided access to the Carriageworks Artistic Program including:

- Complimentary tickets to Carriageworks shows
- Access to national and international visiting curators
- Invitations to opening night events and VIP functions
- Access to Carriageworks education and professional development programs
